Numb. 338.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From May 22. to May 29. 1735.

ROME, Feb. 5.

THE Duke de Turſis Dora, who was formerly Commander in Chief of the Spaniſh Gallies in Naples and Sicily, is again put into that Poſt, and being come hither from Naples, has had Audience of the Pope, who received him with the greateſt Marks of Diſtinction; and has alſo had a Conference with the Cardinal Secretary of State. 'Tis ſaid, that the ſaid Duke has a Commiſſion from his Catholick Majeſty to purchaſe ſome Gallies from this Government and the Republick of Genoa, in order to put the Royal Squadron of Gallies belonging to Naples and Sicily on the ancient Foot. The Cardinals Barberini Pico, and Davia, are gone into Mourning for the Princeſs Sobieski, Spouſe to the Pretender, the two former as being Relations to the ſaid Lady, and the other on a Notion of being Protector of England.

Dreſden, Feb. 5. The King of Pruſſia has entirely recovered his Strength. It is aſſured that the Poliſh Party oppoſing our Elector has demanded a Suſpenſion of Arms, in order to treat of an Accommodation. The Advanc'd Guard of the Muſcovite Troops deſigned for the Service of the Emperor, is already entred into Sileſia. 12000 Saxons are alſo taking their Rout from Bohemia, to join thoſe Troops.

Vienna, Feb. 8. Some Days ago arrived an Expreſs from Sileſia, diſpatched by General Biron, with Advice of the Approach of the Ruſſian Troops towards thoſe Quarters. Fifty three Quintals of Flour has been ſent into Italy for Subſiſtance of our Army there. They ſay that General Wallis has extended his Army in the Boloneſe, and caſt three Bridges on the Panaro; that he has poſſeſſed himſelf of the Finale and San Felici, and that his Deſign is to diſpute the Entry of the Spaniards into Lombardy. The King Auguſtus ſent a Poliſh Lord to Thorn, who is returned back to Warſaw, and Reports, That the Primate declared to him, that it was impoſſible for him to retract his Word given to Staniſlaus, but that he promiſes never more to meddle in Affairs in any manner on one Side or the other.

Vienna, Feb. 14. They write from Berlin, That the Daniſh Miniſter had declared to that Court, that his Maſter was ſurprized, to ſee a Letter from the King of Pruſſia, in Terms ſo indecent with Relation to the Differences happening between his Majeſty and the Town of Hamburg; The Miniſter received for Anſwer, that the Letter in Queſtion teſtified the Conſideration the King of Pruſſia had for his Daniſh Majeſty; but his Majeſty being Director of the Circle of Lower Saxony, he could not look upon the Operation of ſo reſpectable a Member with an indifferent Eye, ſo that if his Daniſh Majeſty rejected the Offers of Mediation that had been made him, to put an End, in a friendly Manner, to the Diſputes now ſubſiſting between him and the ſaid Town of Hamburg, his Pruſſian Majeſty was ready to aſſiſt that Republick againſt all Violence whatever. The Elector of Bavaria has promiſed our Court in a few Months a Succour of 19000 Men. The States of Auſtria have charged themſelves with the ſending into Italy 300 Quintals of Meal.

Cremona, Feb. 18. At 3 Yeſterday Morning 50 Huſſars, 50 Horſe, and 3 Companies of Grenadiers, which were to be joined by 5 others from different Quarters, are marched out, upon Advice that the Enemy had a Deſign to paſs the Oglio, and make a Foraging on this Side. We learn from Sicily, that they wait but for the Arrival there of the King of Naples, to give an Aſſault to the Citadel of Meſſina.

Upper-Rhine, Feb. 18. The French have brought the Bridge of Boats which they had at Konninghen to Fort Mortier, upon an Arm of the Rhine over-gainſt Old Briſac, which gives ſome Alarm to the Garriſon of that Place, and the People of the open Country on this Side of the Rhine, for fear that the Enemy ſhould paſs over there, and take up their Quarters in the Briſgow: However the Imperialiſts have an Eye on their Motions, and Part of the Imperial Troops which were in the Black Foreſt, reſt, have already begun their March towards the Rhine.

Frankfort, Feb. 20. The French are working with the utmoſt Diligence to finiſh the Fort which they have built on the other Side the Rhine, over-againſt the Neckerau, to prevent the Imperialiſts paſſing that River. They have alſo planted with Cannon the Lines which they have made between Neuſtadt and Worms, which Diſpoſitions make it judged that their Deſign is to act only defenſively on that Side, and to employ the greateſt Part of their Forces in other Parts.

Cologn, Feb. 22. We learn from Munich, that Count Colleredo is ſoon expected there in Quality of Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Emperor to put the laſt Hand to the Treaty which is ſaid to be on the Carpet of Vienna and Bavaria.

Paris, Feb. 22. A few Days ago two Solemn Services were celebrated in the Church of the Engliſh Benedictines in this City, for the Repoſe of the Soul of the Princeſs Sobieski, at which all the Engliſh Roman Catholicks who reſide here were preſent. There are now equipping in the Ports of this Kingdom 40 Ships of War for the Service of this Year.

Paris, Feb. 26. The laſt Letters from the Rhine are of the 11th Inſt. They ſay, That the Mortality among the Troops is become as violent at Nancy as in the Alſace, the Palatinate, the two Bridges, and upon the Moſelle, where there dies 12 or 15 Perſons a Day. The Imperialiſts have already filled their Magazines along the Neckar.

Saragoſſa, Feb. 29. The Marquis de Cavaſcliche, againſt whom M. Francois Eſcolano ſued out a Proceſs, by Order of the Royal Council, upon the Complaints of the Inhabitants of Exea de los Cavalleros, where he had the Charge of Corregidor, has been brought Priſoner to the Priſon Royal of this Town, by Order of the ſame Council. It ſeems the Marquis had fallen entirely under a Miſtake, for as he found himſelf the Chief Magiſtrate of a Town, he thought the People over whom he preſided had only the eaſy Task of obeying, and that he could not be too well paid for the painful Duty of governing; but the Corregidor over-acted his Part, therefore he is taken off the Stage as a Judge, and muſt now enter the Scene as a Criminal. It is a confounded Step from the Bench to the Gallows, but Juſtice can take long Strides.

LONDON, Feb. 18.

The Boat with the Treaſure in it, which ſunk in going down the River to the Tilney Sloop at Graveſend for Rotterdam, was weighed up on Saturday, and the Silver is brought back: But we don't hear that any of the Perſons that were in her have been found except the Body of Capt. Allen.

Yeſterday came on a Cauſe in the Court of Exchequer, Weſtminſter, before the Lord Chief Baron Reynold, wherein Mrs. D------ was Plaintiff and Mr. K------ Defendant; the Action was brought againſt the Defendant for 24 l. expended, lent and laid out on her Daughter's Lying in, alleging ſhe was the lawful Wife of the Defendant; and after many merry Arguments, in relation to the Marriage, by the Council on both Sides, it appeared to the Court that they were married in a Garret privately by a Woman who was produced in Court as an Evidence, who confeſſed ſhe read the Ceremony over to them as they were upon their Knees, and went thro' all the Parts of the Ceremony, and afterwards put them to Bed: Upon ſumming up the whole, the Plaintiff was nonſuited. The Defendant's lawful Wife was preſent at the Tryal, but full of Grief for fear of loſing her Husband.

On Thurſday laſt died at Coſteſey-Hall in Norfolk, the Lady Anne Jernegan, Relict of the late Sir Francis Jernegan, Bart. and Daughter of Sir George Blount of Worceſterſhire; a Lady of ſingular Piety, and who lived in the ſtricteſt conjugal Virtues with her late Conſort near 60 Year; ſhe has left iſſue behind her 6 Sons and 2 Daughters, the eldeſt whereof is Sir John Jernegan, the preſent Baronet.

We hear from Bath, that the Commiſſioners for making Enquiry into the Abuſe of Charities in and about that City are very aſſiduous in their Examinations. That a certain Clergyman will be obliged to refund 1500 l. employed contrary to the Donor's Will. Several other notable Diſcoveries have been made; and we hear that when they have gone thro' their Inquiry in that City, they will make a thorough Examination how the Monies have been applied in all the Charities in other Towns within the Limits of their Commiſſion.

Feb. 19. By a Holland Mail arrived laſt Night, 'Tis adviſed from Lombardy, that General Wallis has ſent part of his Troops into the Ferrareſe and Bologneſe for their better ſubſiſtance: That 800 Recruits were already arrived from Germany, and that the Imperial Army will be this Spring 70,000 ſtrong.

From Vienna, that Count Konigſeg was preparing to ſet out ſoon for Italy; and Prince Eugene departs about the middle of March for the Rhine; that both the Imperial Armies would be more numerous than laſt Year; that on the Rhine being to be reinforced with 10,000 Saxons, which are ſaid to be already in march.

Feb. 20. On Monday laſt died at Bath, after a very long and lingering Illneſs, the Right Hon. Anne Lady Torrington, Relict of the Rt. Hon. Thomas Newport, Lord Torrington, deceas'd. She was of the Noble and Ancient Family of the Pierepoints; ſhe was of moſt excellent Endowments, and is univerſally lamented by all that had the Happineſs of her Acquaintance.

On Sunday Evening laſt, the Gunner of His Majeſty's Ship the Bleuheim at Portſmouth, cut his Throat, tho' not ſo effectually but that there is room to believe he may recover.

On Monday Night laſt, between 8 and 9 o'Clock, the Houſe of Mr. Berry anoted Farmer near Graveſend, was robbed by 5 Men, who came to the

Stable

Stable to the Man, armed with Piſtols, &c. and asked him for his Fellow Servant, who told them he did not know where he was; upon which they ſeized him and carried him by Force, into the Dwelling-Houſe, and afterwards bound and blindfolded him; then ſeized the Maſter, and ſerv'd him in like Manner, as alſo his Wife, who, upon being blindfolded, deſired that they would uſe their Children tenderly, being Infants: They anſwered, They would blind them with Handkerchiefs only. Then two of the Rogues went and plunder'd the Houſe, and left the reſt as Guards to watch over thoſe that were bound; but not finding ſo much as they expected, they came down to Mrs. Berry, ſwearing there was more Money in the Houſe: But ſhe anſwered, Not as ſhe knew of, unleſs her Husband had any unknown to her: Upon which they ſtruck her over the Face with a Piſtol, which cut her in a violent manner. Then they went to Mr. Berry, and took the Keys of his Drawers out of his Pockets, and upon diligent Search, they found a conſiderable Sum of Money, amounting to about 160 l. which Sum he had lately received. After they had ſecured the Money, and other Things of Value, they unbound the Man-ſervant, and left a Guard over the reſt that were bound, while they went with him into the Stable, and commanded him to ſaddle three of the beſt Horſes, or they would immediately ſhoot him; which he did accordingly. After this they led him back again to the Houſe, and there bound him a ſecond Time. At their going away they acquainted him that they would turn the Horſes looſe about Greenwich or Deptford, which they accordingly did. But before their Departure Mrs. Berry begg'd to be unbound, or otherwiſe they ſhould all periſh; they anſwered, D-----n you, Madam, ſomebody will releaſe you in the Morning, and that is Time enough.

Feb. 21. The laſt Advices from Dantzick mention that General Laſci had begun his march with a great Body of Ruſſian Troops to the Side of Cracow, to oblige by Force the Troops of King Staniſlaus's Party to ſubmit to King Auguſtus, in caſe the Treaty for an Accommodation, which is now on the Carpet, has not the deſired Succeſs.

Other Accounts ſay, that the Poliſh Troops lately attempted to make an Irruption into Sileſia, but failed in their Enterprize, the Ruſſian and Saxon Troops, which were on thoſe Frontiers, having put themſelves in march to oppoſe their Deſigns.

'Tis certain that the Marſhal de Broglio, will return to France from the Army in Lombardy immediately after the Arrival of the Marſhal de Noailles, who has received Letters from the King of Sardinia, and Don Carlos, congratulating him on his being appointed General in Chief of the French Forces in that Country.

The 14th Inſt. the Duke of Holſtein eſtabliſhed a new Order of Knighthood, called the Order of St. Anne. of which himſelf is Grand-Maſter, and has made ſeveral new Knights, whom he has inveſted with that Title.

They talk at Liege, that the Elector of Bavaria brought in a Reckoning of 100,000 Rix-dollars, for Damages done by the Imperial Troops in their marching thro' his Country laſt Campaign; and that the Treaty of Accommodation between the Courts of Vienna and Munich, is not ſo near a Concluſion as ſome Advices had mentioned.

The King of Pruſſia, they ſay from Cleves, being perfectly recovered, has reſumed the Adminiſtration of Publick Affairs.

The Elector Palatine is ſaid to be ſo dangerouſly ill that his Life is deſpaired of.

Vienna, March 4. General Steinflieth, who accompanied King Staniſlaus in his memorable Retreat from Dantzick, has made an Irruption into his Imperial Majeſty's Territories in Sileſia, at the Head of 17,000 Poles, carrying Fire and Sword wherever he advanced. The Booty he gained in taking the late Convoy going from Warſaw, amounts to 400,000 Florins, beſides 50,000 Crowns in Species; together with the Military Chancery, which contained ſome Papers of great Importance: Twelve Coaches and ſix filled with Ladies belonging to King Auguſtus's Court fell into his Hands at the ſame Time. The Poliſh Army under the Command of Count Tarlo, has driven the Saxons from their Poſts in the Palatinates of Kaliſch and Poſnania, carried the Towns of Liſſa and Carga by Storm and burnt the vaſt Magazines which the Saxons had at Frauſtadt.

'Tis confirmed, that the Poles are in Sileſia, and carry all before them: They are marching directly towards Saxony.

London, March 6. Several Schemes have been publiſhed at different Times, ſaid to be the Propoſitions made to the Foreign Miniſters at the Hague, for a Pacification; but the following, which have been handed hither from Paris, meet with moſt Credit, viz.

" Don Carlos to have Naples and the two " Sicilies, the Parmaſan and Placentine.

" The Emperor the Succeſſion of the Duke-
" dom of Tuſcany, the Mantuan, and Cre-
" moneſe.

" The King of Sardinia the Tortoneſe, No-
" vareſe, and the Ladiſau.

" King Staniſlaus the Title of King and all
" his Revenues in Poland reſtored.

" The States-General demand the Demoli" tion of the Port of Oſtend.

" And the Maritime Powers demand a Suſ-
" penſion of Arms.

All the Officers and Seamen belonging to the Fleet under Command of Sir John Norris, are ordered to repair forthwith on board their reſpective Ships at Plymouth.

One hundred and thirty thouſand Ounces of Silver, and twelve thouſand Ounces of Gold have been exported to Holland and Calais in three Days paſt, and Yeſterday eight hundred Quarters of Wheat for Spain.

They write from Gibraltar, that the Garriſon has been ſadly ſupply'd with freſh Proviſions visions since the Troubles broke out in Barbary; they have hardly any Poultry brought thither, and so few live Cattle, that a Sheep has been sold for four Pounds Sterling.

We hear that a Sum of thirty thousand Pounds will be given by Parliament towards establishing the new Colony of Georgia, in America.

Orders will be issued in a few Days for the Army to shift their Quarters throughout England.

The Polanders are got into Saxony, that is pretty certain; how they will get out again is very uncertain.

We hear three Millions are to be raised for the Service of the current Year, viz. One Million Land-Tax at 2 s. in the Pound, One Million to be applied out of the sinking Fund; 740,000 l. the Malt-Tax, and 500,000 l. a further Mortgage on the Salt Duty.

A Bill will be offered to Parliament this Sessions, to lay a Tax on Batchelors and Widowers, in order to raise a Fund for the maintainance of Bastard Children.

Yesterday 2 s. in the Pound was granted for the Land-Tax.

We hear that his Royal Highness the Duke will make a Voyage up the Mediterranean this Spring, on board Sir John Norris, in order to improve himself in the practical Part of Navigation.
